

The method for the treatment of backbone pain syndrome in postmenopausal women provides for physical exercises accompanied by quercetin thrice a day in a half of an hour prior to the meals 3g daily and calcium glycerophosphate thrice a day 1g daily prescribed for 6 months.