

Roll-table comprises of horizontal driving rollers, with plates among those, and guide rulers. Additionally it is equipped with two rows of rollers, which are installed on the plates in vertical positions, with possibility to adjust the distance between the rows. Rollers in vertical positions are not driving ones.