

A rotor wheel comprises spiral blades and inter-blade channels placed between discs. At that configuration of blades is determined by formula in polar coordinates  $\rho = c\varphi^k$ , where  $\rho$  - radius-vector,  $c$  - constant value,  $\varphi$  - polar angle,  $k$  - fractional index less than one.