

The invention relates to a herbicide agent containing a) one or more herbicide active ingredients especially sulfonyl urea, b) one or more different surface-active agents other than silicon surface-active agents, and c) one or more humectants. The inventive agent is highly suitable for controlling various harmful plants, especially bromus plants.