

The utility model relates to technique for preparing of articles of acryl self-hardening plastics and can be used in stomatology for manufacturing orthodontic appliances, dental plates. A device for polymerization of acryl self-hardening plastics has an elastic washer fixed on a cover on the inside over all surface. A shutter is made as brackets and cylinder with axis of rotation displaced relative to geometrical axis.