

Cementation material for insulation water inflows in a well that includes binding agent and modified with a surface-active agent (SAA) hydrocarbon liquid. At that, as binding agent is includes backfill cement and sodium silicate.