

The invention relates to benzoylpyrazols of general formula (I) and to their use as herbicides. In general formula (I),  $R^1$ ,  $R^2$ ,  $R^3$ ,  $R^4$  and  $R^5$  represent different radicals and n represents 0 to 2.

