

The utilization of used car tires is performed in coking chambers due to the high temperature heating without air access with obtaining gas and solid residue, at that gas is caught by system of catching and purifying gases of chemical recovery industry. The solid residue is after-burnt in the melting induction chamber in air supply with obtaining gas and melt on the chamber bottom. Formed gases can supply coke batteries heating to the system along with coke gas.