

Method for making electronic state purchases goods or services, when as a link for documents turnover between clients and participants a computer is utilized; it controls the databases and with its aid it is possible to execute interaction and information transfer in Internet or in other information net due to which the participants file their coded sales proposals as to the purchase subject. At that they are using their electronic documents and electronic signature, and a client after termination of the term of submission tender proposals locates Protocol of disclosure of tender proposals and makes their evaluation, and after determining the winner by the results of tender proposals evaluation the client draws up Protocol of tender proposals evaluation and shall send to the winner notification of accept of tender proposal. At purchase of goods or services according to procedure of request of prices quotation the client, using computer control the databases and assisting in execution of transaction and information transfer in Internet or other outside information net, shall mail at least to three participants request on the prices quotations. After making evaluation of conformity of tender proposals to approved requirements the client shall evaluate them by criteria of lowest price, with the aid of computer control the databases and executing interaction and information transfer in Internet or outside information net, addressing to participants information related to winner of purchase procedure; doing this he shall draw up a report on the results of realization the request procedure related to prices quotation for purchase of goods and services on the state money.