

A protective composition for treatment sausage products in natural casings is a 0.5-2.0% aqueous solution of methyl cellulose. The protective composition is supplemented with vegetable food refined oil (preferably a sunflower one) – 10-30 %.