

The glue composition for labels includes carbamide-formaldehyde tar, urea, sodium tetraborate, thickening agent, and additionally includes water; as thickening agent is included modified starch of grade "Politsett". Complete uniformity of composition is provided, period of activity, foam-formation ability and stability, stability with respect to mixing, frost-stability, stability to low pH values are increased, with decrease of total time for technological process.