

The ointment for treatment of acute thrombophlebitis and trophic ulcers consists of active substance, hydrophobic base, containing oil, emulsifier №1, preservative and purified water. As active substance the ointment contains emoxypine and a basis additionally contains polyethylene oxide, and as oil it contains castor oil.