

The invention relates to backfill cements for fixation of oil and gas wells with low stratal pressure at presence of absorption zones and can be used in oil-and-gas producing industry. Light-weight backfill cement includes cement clinker, zeolite rocks and gypsum. As zeolite rock it includes zeolitized tuff with moisture content 2-5 %.