

The invention relates to radio engineering. The filterable signal is passed through the circuit described by a polynomial approximant in the transfer function denominator. The polynomial is equal: $B(p) = 1 \pm a_n p^n$, where a_n - coefficient defining frequency cutoff; n - natural number defining approximation order; p - Laplace operator.