

An invention relates to tricyclic derivatives of pyrrole, in particular it relates to derivatives of pyrrole of the general formula I

A proposed pharmaceutical agent has an ability to be bonded with serotonin –receptors, contains substance, one or some therapeutically acceptable filling agents and possible additives. As active substance it contains compound of the formula I at an efficient amount.