

The intermediate compounds with a structure formula (A) may be produced by reaction of primary or secondary amine with a glycosidole or its activated derivatives. This method and the intermediate combinations may be used for the combination synthesis, inhibiting the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV).