

The invention relates to technology of making filtering materials. The method includes extrusion of film from mix melt that includes 10-40 mass % of fiber-forming [polymer and 60-90 mass % of matrix one, with cooling, multi-axis orientation of fiber, extrusion of matrix polymer with selective solvent. Multi-axis orientation of fiber is performed before cooling through long-transverse stretching of film.