

The invention relates to the gypsum and ceramic industry and can be used for production of gypsum forms, intended for plastic molding and slip casting of white wares and ceramics, and also for production of wares in other branches of industry.

The mixture comprises  $\alpha$ -semihydrate of calcium sulphate from a natural gypsum raw material.