

The invention relates to adhesive compositions and mastics received on the ground of caoutchouc, fillers and other fabrication aids used in construction for parquet work, floor covering, gluing ceramic tile etc.

The glue mastic contains butadiene-styrene latex, chalk and thickener. The mastics contains glycerin mixture and diphenylguanidine with liquid glass used as a thickener.