

The invention relates to gas and petroleum industry. A composition for killing and finishing wells contains thickener and water, at that as thickener it contains waste of oil purification – soapstock and ammonia in aqueous solution.