

The invention relates to beta-metason-containing pharmaceutical composition for treating the dermatosis. The composition comprises beta-metason valerate and cetylpyridinium chloride as the active substances and the following excipients: the vaseline oil, the synthetic primary higher alcohols of C₁₆-C₂₀ fraction or cetostearic alcohol, propylene glycol and the purified water.