

A multilayered board comprises a material board whose visible surface is coated with at least one resin-impregnated paper layer (10). A resin layer (18) with an average thickness (d) of at least 5  $\mu\text{m}$  is arranged on the side of the at least one paper layer (10) or of the uppermost paper layer (10) away from the material board.