

The invention relates to the composition for the mixtures in manufacturing the ceramic products of high density including clinker brick and paving stones. The mixture contains (mass %): crude kaolin 32-35, clay loam 55-65, waste of marble manufacture 8-12. The technical result: the reduced baking temperature and environmental safety.