

Lower frame of dumping wagon (dump car), in which flange beams are mountable welded, and their vertical walls have a thickness different along the length of the ridge beam, in this case, the thickness of vertical walls of flange beams in the area of end and swivel exceeds for 1.2-1.4 times the thickness of vertical walls in the area of drum brackets.