

Bellows for articulated buses and trolley buses has corrugations formed of two sidewalls separately cut from woven material covered with elastic and thermoplastic coating, and elements for connection to portal and bodies of front and rear sections of bus (trolley bus).