

A double-sided shaving-set relates to the safety razors with flat cutting blades, in particular to one-time shaving sets with non-interchangeable blades and can be used in cases, when increased requirements are set for duration of use of such razors at their insignificant prime cost, for example in distant garrisons of armed forces, internal troops of Ministry of Internal Affairs, in special units of Ministry of Internal Affairs at fulfillment of lasting operations; the developed razor can be also used by prisoners in the penitentiary institutions.