

The utility model relates to production processes, namely - to the devices implementing the methods of cleaning hollow articles of different shape, such as pipelines.