

Two-layer weft knitted fabric is manufactured with use of synthetic threads. It includes one layer of tricot knitted of polyether threads with linear density $150\div 200$ den, and second layer - $400\div 550$ den, with uniform structure of net in all directions.