

A method for mastering the shooting from pneumatic gun without the bullet consists in the imitation of the gunshot. Upon triggering the hook, the portion of the compressed air is delivered resulting in the recoil and the sound of the shot imitating the real shot with the bullet.