

A merry-go-round contains the base with the immobile stand, the drive, the rotating part at the top of the stand with the arms attached at an angle. The opposite ends of the arms are connected with the ring for the rigid attachment of the suspensions with the chairs. The seating appliances are designed as the soft toys with the seats and the handles.