

Specialized kiosk has walls with doors and ceiling made of panels that together form a trade module. The side walls are blank panels one of which is in addition equipped with door opening and door for private entrance, façade wall has partial glazing that is represented with window frame with payment window, in whole length of the window frame to the façade wall of the kiosk in horizontal position a longitudinal outboard construction is attached, as a counter. Outside, at above of the façade of the kiosk, in normal position rectangular canopy is mounted, this by means of metal constructions is in console way fixed to the façade wall over the glass frame and has small inclination, at above on the body a prismatic roof is placed, this is larger in dimensions compared to the body, with formation of additional canopy in whole perimeter of the kiosk, façade end rectangular plane of the roof is used for representation of identification information as name of the kiosk, all the blank planes of the kiosk are arranged with possibility of placement and/or fixation of information-advertisement carriers.