

A town water drain system includes pipelines for surface, household, industrial waste waters connected to purification constructions connected to a water object, at least one control vessel connected to purification construction, at least the second additional control vessel connected to the first control vessel and purification plant, and an additional draining system connected to purification plants through pipelines for the surface, household, industrial waste waters.