

The garment with portable electric accessories contains the details with fixed electric lighting elements, connected to the source of electric supply and controller. Electric elements made in the form of removable rigid plates of no particular form and size are fixed to the piece of clothing by special catches - clips, hook and pile fasteners or zip fasteners.