

Accessories for footwear motorist protection backdrop is a protective case with a volume bulge outward, for example, cupped, and joined with him means keeping a protective cover on the shoe, which is made of material with an air-and-skid property, and is configured to cover foreign the surface and back of the heel shoes. The protective cover means and hold it on shoes made from a single piece, and with different materials. The protective cover is made of elastic vibration-elastic, antistatic and flame-retardant polymer material.