

Castle clasp for jewelry and accessories includes locking mechanism, one side of which is moving under the influence of external forces. Moving side is designed as a clamping element dvoplechoho, whose center is connected by a hinge lever pivotally installed in the through groove, which is the body lever, with lever has the ability to interact with a spring piston and pivotally connected to the fixed part fixing mechanism.