

A method for predicting fracture healing includes clinical examination and X-ray investigation. Additionally in blood serum are determined the levels of osteocalcin, oxypoline, CRP, and at levels of osteocalcin 17,2-38,0 ng / ml, oxypoline 12-15 mcmol / l, CRP 1,7-5,2 mg / l fracture healing is predicted.